Subject: Morozov, Debtor; Ch. 15 Case No. 19-10629-smb - August 27, 2019 Hearing re Debtor request for Costs

Honorable Stuart M. Bernstein,

The Foreign Representative and Mr. Morozov have been discussing a potential settlement of Mr. Morozov's request for costs. We are cautiously optimistic that a settlement will be reached.

Nonetheless, in the event that a settlement is not reached, and a hearing is necessary, I respectfully request that Ms. Egan, counsel for the Foreign Representative, be permitted to participate telephonically on August 27, 2019 at 10 am EST, as Ms. Egan is located in Washington State.

Thank you.

Ms. Herther-Spiro,

Attached is a redline showing the changes in the joint pretrial order from the version sent by the Foreign Representative and the latest version sent by the Debtor.

The Foreign Representative is agreeable with the Debtor's proposed version subject to the following two clarifications:

(1) Section III, Paragraph 11.

The Foreign Representative agrees that there is an appeal of the Russian Insolvency Proceeding, but does not agree with what the Debtor characterizes as "fact[s]." The Foreign Representative is amenable to paragraph 11 stating (change highlighted and in bold):

The Debtor appealed the most current (9th) extension of the Russian Insolvency Proceeding based on the Debtor's contentions that no assets have been discovered by the Foreign Representative in 4.5 years, that the Foreign Representative is acting in his own interests to continuously renew the proceedings since he draws a salary from it, Russian creditors are disadvantaged by it and the Debtor is needlessly suffering from continuing procedure. The appellate decision in Moscow District is pending and is expected in August 2019.

(2) Section VIII.

The Debtor wrote "If Mr. Demidenko is not present in Court physically, none of the Petitioner's Exhibits provided by the Foreign Representative may be used." The Foreign Representative does not stipulate to that request, but is amenable to it being included in the Joint Pretrial Order as long as it has the preface of "The Debtor contends"

Dear Mr. Brasky,

I respectfully submit to the Honorable Stuart M Bernstein the Joint Pre-Trial Order signed by Debtor.

I apologise for submitting with a delay, which was caused by the Petitioner's Counsel making changes at the last minute before the deadline last week.

Could you, please, file for Debtor?

Thank you,

- Eugene Morozov
